

Koa Ridge, a development by Castle & Cooke

Thursday, March 9th 8:00am-9:30am

Christopher M. Lovvorn
Vice President of Commercial Development

The long awaited Koa Ridge development is fully entitled and development has started. Koa Ridge commercial is the new and exciting "Experience" in Central Oahu. Making places where communities come together and engage one another is both a civic benefit and development opportunity. A "lifestyle" center is not a shopping center, but the social heart of a community. Containing more offerings than retail alone—such as a hotel, office space, restaurants, movie theater, trendy shops, civic uses such as farmers market, pop-up street vendors and movies on the Green to suggest a few—it thrives when envisioned more like a town than merely as a commercial development. Koa Ridge will be the new destination in Central Oahu. Adjacent to CORP and conveniently located just off of the H-2 freeway, and future home of a major medical/hospital complex, you'll want to be a part of this new development.

Christopher M. Lovvorn

Christopher M. Lovvorn, CPA and CMA, has been with Castle & Cooke Hawaii for over twelve years and is currently its Vice President of Commercial Development. Castle & Cooke's Commercial team is responsible for the development and property management of Castle & Cooke's Hawaii real estate portfolio.
