With rail currently being built along the 20-mile line spanning from West 'Oahu to Ala Moana Center, development activity has begun along the corridor near the stations. Find out about the current Transit Oriented Development (TOD) initiatives from a broad range of panelists to include government, real estate brokers, developers and design professionals. There will be presentations by all panelists along with discussion and Q&A. Don't miss the chance to hear from these experts and the opportunity that abounds with TOD.
